

ATHLETIC TRAINING EDUCATION PROGRAM CAATE ACCREDITED

ATEP Student/Staff/Faculty Accomplishments

Serena Tichy '09 (Marshalltown, IA) was selected to receive an undergraduate scholarship presented by the Mid-American Athletic Training Association (MAATA). The MAATA includes seven states within District V of the National Athletic Training Association. Serena is the second Central College student to receive this recognition.

Kelly Olson '08 (Fertile, IA) presented at the Southeast Athletic Training Association (SEATA) annual symposium in Atlanta, GA. Her poster presentation on “Difficult Shoulder Injury in a Division III College Football Player” was one of 12 selected from throughout the entire country. Chris Viesselman also attended this conference.

Two groups of Central College students were selected to present at the MAATA Annual Symposium in Sioux Falls, SD in April. Central College has had more student groups present at this conference than any other school within the district. The Athletic Training Education Program used a Bette Brunsting grant from the Research and Development committee to travel to the symposium.

- Group One: “Dorsal Dislocation of the Proximal Interphalanged Joint in a Collegiate Football Player”
 - Marcus Sojka '10 (Winnebago, IL)
 - Paul O’Kane '10 (Creston, IA)
 - Jacob Brueck '10 (Burlington, IA)

- Group Two: “Difficult Shoulder Injury in a Division III College Football Player”
 - Kelli Olson '08 (Fertile, IA)
 - Katie McBain '08 (LeGrand, IA)

John Roslien has been elected treasurer of the MAATA. He serves on the four-member District V Executive Board and represent the district on the national level. He continues to serve as the Chair of the Public Relations Committee for the MAATA/District V.

Alysha Overturf '09 (Bettendorf) has been selected to receive an undergraduate scholarship presented by the Iowa Athletic Trainers Society (IATS). Alysha is the second Central College student in two years to receive this recognition.

Dustin Briggs was elected by his peers to serve as Secretary the Iowa Athletic Trainers Society.

Marcus Sojka '10 Winnebago, IL Will have a summer internship with the Green Bay Packers. He will work with Packer Assistant Athletic Trainer and Central College alumni Nate Weir.